THE ONLY WEDDING PLANNING CHECKLIST & TIMELINE YOU'LL NEED

Wondering how to plan a wedding? You're in luck. Our detailed wedding planning checklist and timeline lists every box you need to tick in the lead-up to your special day.

We've broken our wedding planning checklist into the 7 most important stages spread across twelve months, but each step is just as relevant if you happen to be planning within a shorter time frame.

Simply tick each item off as you go. There's also space to add your own personalised items in, just don't forget to save the file when you do!

12+ MONTHS UNTIL THE WEDDING

For most couples, wedding planning begins at least a year out from the big day, but regardless of when you start the journey the first steps are to:

SET A WEDDING BUDGET WITH YOUR PARTNER

The costs will start mounting as soon as you start planning, so be prepared with a comfortable budget you both agree on. Get started by listing a few essential items below e.g. Dress, Rings, Cake, Photographer etc.

CHOOSE A DATE AND BOOK A VENUE

Not all venues will need to be booked this far in advance, but you'll want to secure your dream location as soon as possible to avoid disappointment.

DECIDE ON THE THEME OF YOUR WEDDING

A Pinterest board is a good way of finding and recording stylistic inspiration.

BOOK A RECEPTION SPACE

Check whether the space offers inclusions (tables, chairs, tableware) or whether they need to be hired separately.

BOOK AN OFFICIANT

This may or may not be necessary depending on the nature of the ceremony.

SET UP A WEDDING GIFT REGISTRY

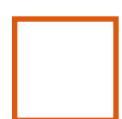

A gift registry allows guests to see your wishlist of wedding presents, so they're guaranteed to get the right gift without doubling up with someone else. Take into consideration that your registry will be referenced throughout your entire journey, from bridal shower to the big day and random gift giving in between, so don't be shy when selecting your wish list.

Setting one up is simple with MyRegistry, which allows you to add your favourite items from online stores to a single wishlist. Shop the entire range of Waterford crystal and add it to your registry.

CREATE A WEDDING WEBSITE

A wedding website is a convenient space for hosting all the details of the big day, as well as RSVPs once invitations have been sent.

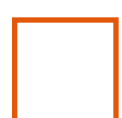

RENT ADDITIONAL EQUIPMENT

Even if your chosen venues include equipment rental, check to ensure that nothing extra is required (e.g. extra tablecloths, a DJ table, sound equipment).

FOLLOW UP ON ANY MISSING RSVPS

Check in with guests you haven't heard back from. You may need to adjust the catering with updated numbers.

CHECK IN WITH ALL VENDORS

A quick call will ensure they're aware of plans for the day. Consider sending them a copy of the schedule for reference.

PICK UP YOUR WEDDING BANDS

Keep them somewhere safe alongside the other accessories you'll need on the day.

RECONFIRM PLANS WITH ALL VENDORS

A quick email with a final copy of the schedule will put your mind at ease.

ASSIGN SMALL JOBS TO MEMBERS OF THE BRIDAL PARTY AND WEDDING TEAM

You'll need people on the day to carry your things, meet the vendors, and handle gifts.

ASSEMBLE ANY GIFT BASKETS OR FAVOURS

PREPARE PAYMENTS FOR VENDORS

Invoices and payments will be the last thing on your mind while you're honeymooning, so settle as many accounts as you can before the wedding itself.

AFTER THE WEDDING

After dancing, celebrating, and honeymooning, there are still some post-wedding to-do's to tackle.

SORT YOUR GIFTS

Many gifts from your registry will be brought to the wedding or delivered right to your home. Don't delay opening and be sure to note down each gift giver so you know who needs to be sent a thank you letter.

SEND THANK YOU NOTES

CLEAN AND PRESERVE YOUR DRESS

The longer you wait, the harder it will be to remove any stains or reception-spills from the dress. Have it professionally cleaned as soon as possible so it's ready for preserving.

PRINT YOUR WEDDING PHOTOS

Most wedding photographers will provide printed copies as part of their service, but print anything that finds its way back to you in digital format (including photos taken by friends and family). A printed photo makes the memory all the more physically present, especially when it's placed in a dignified crystal frame.
